Day 05:

Melukat - Balinese Purification

TEMPLE BLESSINGS

Balinese locals are deeply spiritual people, with the roots of the island's beliefs and traditions running deep in local lifestyles. Today get a hands-on look at one of the best examples of Balinese spirituality in the village of Sebatu, about an hour outside of South Bali. By car, head out from your hotel and arrive in this charming area within Ubud. Home to a stunning collection of still-operating temples, follow your guide's lead to explore these structures and learn about how they still play an important role in the lives of pious locals.

After an illuminating guided wander, travel uphill and deeper into the village to visit the site of the area's holy water. Here your guide will help you put on a traditional Balinese sarong and lead you in how to pray to the gods. With each offering having a different colour of distinct significance, learn about how each hue represents a different prayer. After the procession, dip into the holy water - considered an important cleansing ritual - and wrap up your day with lunch at a local restaurant.

Make your first pit stop at Banyumulek Village, where single horse-drawn carts, or "cidomo", can be found and taken around the village. Here, enjoy a brief and horse and cart ride around these sleepy streets before paying a visit to one of the local pottery centres that famously export their products all over the world. Watch skilled craftsmen at work before trying your hand at creating your own souvenir to take home with you.

Afterwards, continue driving inland to Sukarara Village, known for its fabulous weavings of ikat and songket fabrics. Here, observe skilled artisans weave on a simple hand-loom, designing patterns derived from traditional Lombok symbols. Then, get behind the loom and craft your own design before trying on some traditional Sasak costumes for some memorable photos.

Continue on to Selung Belanak Beach, known for its pristine white sands and beautiful bay area. Take a quick dip before heading to Mawun Beach, referred to locally as “surfer’s heaven”. In the afternoon, settle down for a relaxing set lunch at Kuta Beach before continuing your tour of the southern beaches, including Tanjung Aan Beach and Seger Beach. Here, take a stroll along their magnificent shorelines and let the sea breeze fill your lungs before taking a dip in the gentle surf.
